

U3A Cookery Group

Co-authors: Mary Bale and Carol Robinson

The U3A Cookery Group has been running for two years now on a monthly basis and has 12 members. We began with the premise that members shared an interest in food and were willing to swap ideas, share recipes and want to try some new things.

It is not possible to teach cookery classes – we meet in members' houses and are therefore restricted by space – but we encourage members to try out recipes that they may otherwise avoid. And we get to taste the results as members bring along their cooked items for everyone to try. We have eaten some delicious food in the last two years!

In the summer months we have a picnic and barbecue and during the cooler months we try out more seasonal food such as soups, casseroles or warming food. Some other themes have been regional cookery, low calorie meals, use of leftovers, Christmas nibbles and interesting sandwiches.

It is a relaxed and informal group of like-minded and friendly people. And unfortunately we all enjoy it so much that there are no vacancies for new members at present.

So how about setting up your own cookery group? We'd be happy to help with ideas etc. Home cooked food is truly one of life's great pleasure and is so much healthier than ready-cooked meals. Why not give it a go?

Some of these pages seem to need updating. Could all Group Leaders please check their page and e-mail any additions or amendments to the Group Secretary.

Group Reporting: A reminder that we need to include groups income and expenditure in our results from 2019. Many groups do not need complete monthly reports because they either don't have any income and expenditure or amounts are very small (less than £100 per year) or the monies in and out occur on the same day. However these groups need to submit an annual statement to the Treasurer stating why they do not need to report – if you haven't already done so would you email the Treasurer with this information please (treasurer@formbyu3a.org.uk) or send a letter to Formby U3A, PO Box 216, Liverpool, L37 1XQ, or speak to the Treasurer at the monthly coffee morning.

If your group does have income and expenditure and you're not already reporting, would you contact the Treasurer who will talk you through the straight forward requirements.

Formby Friday Market

Several Formby U3A committee members manned a stall at Formby's market throughout the day on Friday 13th September to promote our activities. Despite the inauspicious date(!) the weather was kind to us and we were able to speak to many members and potential members, giving advice and information about what Formby U3A is and the many activities they could get involved in by joining one of our 100+ groups.
