

Salmesbury

Author, Jackie Robinson.

On a lovely sunny and crisp day in October a full coach of Outings Group members set off for Salmesbury, near Preston. On arrival we all sat down by the log fire for some welcome coffee and biscuits then proceeded to the chapel for the start of our tour. There we met with Simon Entwistle, a local guide, who regaled us with fascinating stories and ghost tales of Lancashire. We then split into two groups, one going upstairs with Simon and the other downstairs with the resident witch where we heard more eerie tales of the Salmesbury witches and the ghost of the white lady. After our tour we were free to explore the 14th century hall ourselves and the grounds which included a courtyard and rose garden, beautiful in the autumnal sunshine.

Once back on the bus we then headed to Pendle and the Calf's Head for a sumptuous two course lunch which was fantastic as always. Overall a wonderful day was had by all.

Many thanks to Ann for arranging this lovely trip for us to enjoy.

Blackburne House

Author, Barbara Marsh.

Local History Group 7 visited Blackburne House in the Georgian Quarter of Liverpool and close to the Anglican Cathedral. After refreshments in the bistro cafe, we moved to the main hall where our guide, Brenda Freeman, gave us a very informative talk about the history of house and the surrounding area. The house was originally a home for John Blackburne, Mayor of Liverpool, in the late 18th Century. It was then bought by local philanthropist and ship owner, George Holt, in the mid 19th Century and after his death, his family bequeathed the house to the Institute to be set up as a girls school in memory of his daughter, Emma Jane Holt. This opened in 1844 and became the first girls school in the United Kingdom and remained a school until the mid 1980's. The property fell into disrepair until a Trust fund was formed and they eventually raised a large amount of money to refurbish the building. Blackburne House reopened in 1984 as a facility for educational and social activities, mainly for females. After the talk, Brenda gave us a guided tour of the labyrinth of rooms, explaining their original school use, any changes made and their present uses.

After a very interesting and informative tour, we returned to the bistro cafe for lunch where the variety and quality of food was excellent. All in all a very enjoyable visit.

Loggerheads

Author, Marcia Thompson.

Our November walk started from Loggerheads Country Park and was led by Tony Smith and Mike Williams. The forecast was not brilliant, but Fellwalkers only had a few showers (one of them coinciding with our arrival at the Trig Point) and most of the day was fine with good views of Moel Famau and the Clwyds. The trees, both in the distance and overhead, were a blaze of Autumn Colour and greatly added to the pleasure of the walk.

We went South from Loggerheads along a variety of paths and lanes and through woodland to climb to the summit of Bryn Alyn, the highest point of the walk. Then a short distance to the Trig point on Nercwys Mountain where the photo was taken. More lanes and paths brought us to the pretty little village of Maeshafn with its array of Scarecrows put up by the residents for Halloween. After that we followed the Clwyd Way back to Loggerheads.

A lovely area for walking and thanks to our leaders for negotiating their way through a veritable maze of paths and tracks and finding us a nice substantial wall on which to sit and eat our lunch.

Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine

Author, Alan Thomas.

Members of Local History Group 9 visited the Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine (LSTM) and were met in the foyer by Dr Elli Wright and she welcomed us royally with tea/coffee biscuits and pastries, which I am sure you will agree is the best way to begin to any tour.

LSTM was founded in November 1898 by Sir Alfred Lewis Jones, a shipping magnet, with an annual donation of £350. On face of it this may seem a strange gift however with Liverpool being involved in trading between West and South Africa, at that time it was a way of ensuring his staff were well looked after. The LSTM was the first School of Tropical Medicine in the world, beating London by six months. It was initially called Liverpool School of Tropical Diseases when it was opened by Lord Lister in 1898. Rubert Boyce was the inaugural Dean of the LSTD and succeeded in recruiting Ronald Ross as the first lecturer in Tropical Medicine. In 1902 Ross became the first winner of The Nobel Peace Prize in Physiology of Medicine for his research in malaria transmission. A replica Nobel Peace Prize Medal was on display. Alwen Myfanwy Evens began working in here in 1918 and was the first female lecturer in entomology achieving a world wide reputation and was held in high regard in what was a male dominated area of work.

We then visited the Centre for Snake bite, Research and Interventions to meet the personnel responsible for venom extraction. Behind glass, we viewed two members of staff expertly handling a spitting cobra and then extracting the venom. The members of staff doing this procedure wore protective masks as the cobra can spit deadly venom up to 12 feet and if the venom entered their eyes it could cause blindness. Our final visit was to the Department of Maternal, Newborn and Child Health which looks into the prevention and causes of death in child birth in Third World and Lower Income Countries. Kirsty Lowe, Research Associate (Midwifery) gave examples of simple equipment which could help in preventing death in childbirth. The information on the invaluable work carried out in this department drew our tour to a close.

Everyone agreed this was one of the most interesting and informative tours we had been on and one I would recommend to other groups.

Formby Rotary's Fundraising Carol Concert

Author, Jan Owen.

The Rotary Club of Formby are holding their popular annual fundraising Carol Concert once again. It is to take place at St Luke's Church Formby on Friday 13 December at 7:30 til 9:30 pm. The Aughton Male Voice Choir will be entertaining the guests and leading the Carol singing. Come along, forget the Christmas preparation and get into the spirit of Christmas.

All funds raised will be donated to Zoe's Place, the children's hospice in Liverpool who do magnificent work supporting families with terminally ill and long term sick children. Entry is by ticket only - £5 to include mince pie and mulled wine during the interval. Tickets available from Peter Connor, telephone 382349.

Forthcoming Music & Theatre Events

Author: Eileen Jones.

Many members seem to be under the impression that in order to attend an event, they need to be a member of the "Music and Theatre group." There is no group, all events are open to and for the benefit of any fully paid up member of the U3A. Once on the bus you will be given your ticket and then transported to and from the theatre. You will always find us at the monthly coffee mornings so come and have a chat and see what treats we have in store for you.

Please book tickets as early as possible, to avoid both your disappointment and our financial loss on the event. We have to pay for the tickets some months in advance and the price to you is estimated jointly on the number of tickets and the subsequent cost of transport. It is extremely helpful to us if you can please pay for tickets when the initial booking is made and to write the event name and your telephone number on the back of the cheque. If you cannot attend an event let us know as soon as possible and we will attempt to sell your ticket to someone on the waiting list. The coach usually leaves The Cross House bus stop at 6:15pm. Prices include ticket and transport. Any variation on these details will be specified with the event detail.

Thurs 30th Jan., "Curtains," Liverpool Empire. For those of you who love musicals, whodunnits and comedy, this is a treat not to be missed. This Tony award winning murder mystery stars the well known comedian, Jason Manford who brings hilarity and star quality to the role of the music loving detective, Frank Cioffi. Will he solve the backstage murder and go on to save the show? Tickets including transport £35
Dave Irving can be contacted, if necessary, on 630192.

Your Group; Your News

There are over 100 groups in Formby U3A. We were pleased to receive the 5 reports from groups which are included in this Newsletter. Did you know that there are groups representing over 50 different interest areas in Formby U3A? There are 4 interest areas in this Newsletter; Fell Walking, Local History; Outings; Music & Theatre Groups. Many interest areas have never reported any of their activities.

When outsiders complain that there's not much going on in Formby U3A, have you ever wondered why? 95 groups could let others know what they are doing. 47 different interest areas are hidden from the public. All of this creates a very distorted image of Formby U3A and what its members do.

If someone was thinking of joining Formby U3A would they know your group existed?

Notice of Special General Meeting

Author, Keith Jacques, Secretary.

A Special General Meeting of Formby U3A will be held at 2:00pm on Wednesday 12th February 2020 in Holy Trinity Parish Hall, Rosemary Lane, Formby

Agenda

Approval of a replacement Constitution for Formby University Of The Third Age. (This is the only item for consideration)

Background: The parent body of U3A's nationwide, the Third Age Trust (TAT), have agreed a new model constitution with the Charity Commission and all U3A's are now required to adopt this model as the basis of their own Constitutions. Any amendments to the model must be cleared in advance with TAT

The committee have performed a detailed study of the new model constitution and have agreed changes with TAT where we believed them to be required or beneficial to Formby U3A, for example the numbers of members required to achieve a quorum at meetings, the named Officer roles to be included in the constitution and the grace period for the renewal of memberships. Details on how to view the current and proposed new constitutions are given below.

The Committee of Formby U3A believe that adopting the proposed new constitution will not impact on our activities and are therefore happy to recommend it to our members for adoption.

Proposer: This proposal is made by Keith Jacques, Secretary of Formby U3A and is seconded by Frances Taylor, Chairman.

Current Constitution: The current constitution can be viewed on the website of the Formby U3A (click on the "Admin" tab on the home page then select "Formby U3A Constitution 2018").

Proposed Replacement Constitution: The proposed replacement constitution can also be viewed on the website of the Formby U3A (click on the "Admin" tab on the home page then select "Formby U3A Constitution 2020"). If you would like a copy of the proposed replacement constitution please contact Keith Jacques, Secretary.

Non Quorate meeting: In the event of the meeting being inquorate (i.e. less than 10% of the membership present), the meeting will be reconvened immediately before the AGM on Wednesday 11th March 2020.

Author, Keith Jacques, Secretary.

The Annual General Meeting of Formby U3A will be held at 2pm on Wednesday 11th March 2020 in Holy Trinity Parish Hall, Rosemary Lane, Formby

All members of the Committee (the Trustees) are required to stand down at the AGM. Although some have indicated their willingness to stand for re-election, these positions can be contested and there are several vacancies for committee members. New names would be most welcome.

A Nomination Form for any of the positions on Committee is printed on page 14 of this Newsletter, or copies can be obtained from the Secretary either at the Wednesday and Thursday meetings, or by emailing secretary@formbyu3a.org.uk. Completed forms should be returned to the Secretary by 11th February 2020.

These should be received by 22nd January 2020 so that they can be included in the February newsletter with the notice of the meeting.

Your U3A Needs You!

The whole of the Formby U3A Committee will be up for election at the AGM in March. We welcome new people and new ideas. Everyone has skills and abilities which can contribute to the smooth running of your U3A. Without members volunteering to be on the Committee Formby U3A cannot exist.

Please consider helping to run your U3A by joining the committee either in a specific Officer role, or as a Committee Member. Nominations forms are available via our website or can be obtained by emailing: secretary@formbyu3a.org.uk

Group Reporting: A reminder that we need to include groups income and expenditure in our results from 2019. Many groups do not need to complete monthly reports because they either don't have any income and expenditure or amounts are very small (less than £100 per year) or the monies in and out occur on the same day. However these groups need to submit an annual statement to the Treasurer stating why they do not need to report – if you haven't already done so would you email the Treasurer with this information please (treasurer@formbyu3a.org.uk) or send a letter to Formby U3A, PO Box 216, Liverpool, L37 1XQ, or speak to the Treasurer at the monthly coffee morning. If your group does have income and expenditure and you're not already reporting, would you contact the Treasurer who will talk you through the straightforward requirements.
